Suspect arrested

On Tuesday, December 24, 2024, at approximately 8:14 a.m., the Haltom City Police Department was notified by the Grapevine Police Department of a kidnapping and robbery incident that began at the Acacia Apartments, located at 5000 Denton Highway in Haltom City. The victim, a 22-year-old female resident, was abducted at gunpoint while walking to her vehicle around 4:45 a.m.

The suspect, later identified as Eduardo Javier Ordóñez Godoy, a 35-year-old male from Honduras with no known local address, forced the victim into her vehicle. He made several threats and compelled her to withdraw money from a nearby bank. The victim was then driven approximately 22 miles to the Camden Apartments at 3900 Grapevine Mills Parkway in Grapevine, where she was briefly restrained. She managed to escape and summon help, while the suspect fled in her vehicle.

The stolen vehicle was entered into law enforcement databases with a note of the violent nature of the offense. The victim was physically unharmed during the incident.

On the evening of December 25, 2024, an alert patrol officer with the Oklahoma City Police Department located the stolen vehicle in a parking lot in the 2100 block of SW 39th Street, Oklahoma City. The suspect was inside the vehicle and was taken into custody. Evidence connected to the reported offense was recovered at the scene.

Haltom City detectives traveled to Oklahoma City to interview the suspect. After being advised of the Miranda rights afforded to him, the suspect admitted to his involvement in the offense.
