MEDIA ADVISORY/NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
Wednesday, May 31st, 2023

On Wednesday, May 31st, 2023, at approximately 12:30 P.M., Haltom City officers and detectives responded to the 5600 block of Santa Fe Trail for a reported shooting. Officers located two adults inside the residence, both deceased. Based upon preliminary information, we are investigating this incident as a possible murder-suicide. This appears to be an isolated incident and there is no threat to the citizens in the area.

Haltom City detectives and evidence technicians are on the scene and actively investigating this tragic incident. The Tarrant County Medical Examiners Office will determine the cause and manner of death and release the identities of the individuals once they have completed their investigation.

If anyone has information related to this incident, please contact the Haltom City Police at 817-222-7000.

This is still an ongoing investigation, and additional arrests and/or charges may be forthcoming. Information will be released as it becomes available.
