MEDIA ADVISORY/NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Sunday, November 5th, 2023

23H32979

On Sunday, November 5th, 2023, at approximately 6:30 A.M., Haltom City officers and detectives responded to the 2900 block of Fincher Road for a reported shooting. Officers entered the residence and located a deceased adult female and a male with critical injuries. Based upon preliminary information, we are investigating this incident as a possible murder and attempted suicide. This appears to be an isolated incident and there is no threat to the citizens in the area. Haltom City detectives and evidence technicians processed the scene and are actively investigating this tragic incident. The male was transported to a local hospital and will likely face criminal charges. The identity of the male will not be released until he has been arraigned by a magistrate.

The Tarrant County Medical Examiner's Office will determine the cause and manner of death and release the identity of the female once they have completed their investigation.

If anyone has information related to this incident, please contact the Haltom City Police at 817-222-7000.

This is still an ongoing investigation, and additional arrests and/or charges may be forthcoming. Information will be released as it becomes available.
